Hugh Barckley - Elizabeth Kirkpatrick

Hugh Barckley married Elizabeth Kirkpatrick in 1787, in New Jersey.

Hugh was born April 25, 1760, and died at Finleyville, Pa., May 22, 1830; his parentage has not been ascertained. Elizabeth was born Feb. 23, 1769, and died Sept. 29, 1840; she was a daughter of Andrew and Margaret (Gaston) Kirkpatrick, and a granddaughter of Alexander and Elizabeth Kirkpatrick of Baskingridge, N. J.

Some other information concerning Elizabeth's ancestry will be given at the close of this genealogical sketch; for lists of her collateral kin, see Genealogy of Capt. John Kirkpatrick.

The battle of Monmouth was fought July 28, 1778. Elizabeth Kirkpatrick was at that time ten years of age and lived near Freehold. She stood on a hill near her home and watched the conflict as the contending troops swayed back and forth over the battle field. She often related this incident to her grandchildren.

Hugh and Elizabeth dwelt at first in New Jersey; after three or four years they removed to western Pennsylvania, and settled near Finleyville in Washington County; Finleyville is twenty miles due south of Pittsburg. On June 15, 1791, Hugh bought a farm of 100 acres from James Barckley, paying about five dollars an acre. On this land he built a house which is still standing, but is not occupied. This stone house stood a little off the road because of a good spring, the water of which ran down to a trough on their porch.

In 1802, John Finley bought land near by; many years afterward the Hugh Barckley farm was bought by the Finleys and it is still held in that surname.

Hugh and Elizabeth are buried in Mingo cemetery, where white marble tombstones stand to their memory.

Hugh Barckley
died
May 22, 1830, in the 70 year
of his age.

Elizabeth Barckley wife of
Hugh Barckley
died Sept. 29, 1840
in the 71st year
of her age.

Hugh and Elizabeth Barckley had thirteen children, whose names and birth dates were taken from the original family Bible. This old Bible was in the possession of Mrs. William Murphy (Nancy Kirkpatrick Barckley) whose household goods were stored once and all burned while in storage; but fortunately the names and dates had been copied from it a short time before its destruction.

Thirteen children of Hugh and Elizabeth Barckley:

I. Margaret, born Jan. 7, 1788, always an invalid, and died unmarried.

II. Mary, born March 13, 1789; married John Cheeseman.

III. Jane, born March 15, 1791; she finally removed to Ohio; she married (1) Mr. Caldwell, and (2) Andrew McClain; she had children by both husbands.

IV. Martha, born Feb. 19, 1793; she married John McMillan.

V. Elizabeth, born Jan. 10, 1795; she married Ben Allison, sine prole; they dwelt in Ohio.

VI. Sara, born Nov. 15, 1797; married William Clark.

VII. William, born March 13, 1799; married Polly Allison.

VIII. Ann, born December, 1800, died an infant.

IX. Andrew, born Nov. 29, 1801, died aged 15 years.

X. Hannah, born Dec. 15, 1803; married Alexander Cameron.

XI. Nancy Kirkpatrick, born Jan. 6, 1806; married William Murphy.

XII. Susannah, born Nov. 18, 1808, died aged 14 years.

XIII. Hugh, Jr., born Jan. 13, 1811, died July 28, 1878; married Mary Murphy.

Eight of these thirteen children left descendants.

Our Kirkpatrick Lineage

Here follows our Kirkpatrick line from the beginning:

I. Ivone Kirkpatrick is the first ancestor upon record. He lived in the reign of David I. He is witness to a charter of Robert Brus, the elder, the first Lord of Annandale, and of his wife Euphemia, granting the fishing of Tourduff to the monks of Abbeyholm, which charter is undated, but the grantor died in the year 1141.

II. ———Kirkpatrick, whose baptismal name has not been ascertained.

III. Ivone Kirkpatrick, who on August 15, 1232, obtained from Alexander II, a confirmatory charter of the lands of Closeburn. He married Lady Euphemia, daughter of Robert the Bruce, Lord of Annandale and Cleceland.

IV. Adam Kirkpatrick, Lord of Closeburn.

V. Stephen Kirkpatrick, Lord of Closeburn, styled in the chartulary of Kelso, in 1278, "Stephanus Dominus Villae de Closeburns, filius et heres Domini Ade de Kirkpatrick." He had two sons, Roger (Sir), his heir; and Duncan, who married Isabel, daughter and heir of David Torthorwald.

VI. Sir Roger Kirkpatrick, who married Lady Margaret de Somerville, who was a descendant of King Alfred the Great.

VII. William Kirkpatrick of Kirkmichael.

VIII. William Kirkpatrick of Kirkmichael, who sold the estate, and died in 1686.

IX. George Kirkpatrick of Knock in Kirkmichael parish.

X. Alexander Kirkpatrick, who was the last of our line to live and die in Scotland.

XI. Alexander Kirkpatrick and his wife Elizabeth; they removed from Watties, Neach, Scotland, to the city of Belfast, Ireland; this was in 1725; in 1736 they crossed the Atlantic Ocean and settled at Baskingridge, N. J.

XII. Andrew Kirkpatrick and Margaret Gaston.

XIII. Elizabeth Kirkpatrick and Hugh Barckley.
